A REAL BARGAIN IN LAND.

We have a genuine bargain in land right at Columbus. It is what is known as the Worley or Fields place, four hundred and forty acres, right across Moore's Creek, running right up to the corporate limits of the city. About half cleared and the balance in timber and pasture. Can be subdivided into smaller tracts and sold at a big profit on the price asked for the whole. If you want it you had better see us this week for it will sell. Maer Realty Company. 11

FLOUR REPORTER.

Mr. Jas. T. Searcy has been appointed Flour Reporter for the government in this county, his duty being to see that there is no profiteering in the sale of flour.

THE EXPLANATION

Nature placed the growth-promoting "vitamins" in the oil of the cod-fish—this explains why

Scott's Emulsion

is so definite in its help to a child of any age. Latter-day science reveals that the "vitamins" are needed for normal growth.

Scott's Emulsion will help any child grow.

GOVERNMENT FOOD SUPPLIES.

The Postoffice Department late Saturday ruled that on the shipment of government food supplies to the people that only the first zone postage would apply, regardless of the distance of shipment. This changes very much the cost of government shipments from New Orleans and the postmaster has prepared the new schedule which will apply for Columbus. The cost of the article is given and the amount of postage is also given. Parties ordering are required to file their order in duplicate, giving to the postoffice clerk or carrier one copy and keeping one copy, which he will receipt in acknowledgment of the order. The following is the corrected list:

Baked Beans—1 lb. can, price 4c, postage 2c; 2 lb. can, price 6c, postage 3c; 3 lb. can, price 9c, postage 3c. Stringless Beans—2 lb. can, price 9c, postage 3c.

Corned Beef—1 lb. can, price 29c, postage 2c; 2 lb. can, price 55c, postage 3c; 6 lb. can, price $1.75, postage 8c.

Roast Beef—1 lb. can, price 29c, postage 2c; 2 lb. can, price 63c, postage 4c; 6 lb. can, price $1.90, postage 8c.

Cherries—2½ lb. can, price 21c, postage 3c.

Corn—2 lb. can, price 9c, postage 3c.

Hashed Corn Beef—1 lb. can, price 22c, postage 2c; 2 lb. can, price 37c, postage 4c.

Is it Possible to Legislate Life and Brains?

Swift & Company is primarily an organization of men, not a collection of brick, mortar, and machinery.

Packing Plants, their equipment and usefulness are only outward symbols of the intelligence, life-long experience, and right purpose of the men who compose the organization and of those who direct it.

Will not Government direction of the packing industry, now contemplated by Congress, take over the empty husk of physical property and equipment and sacrifice the initiative, experience and devotion of these men, which is the life itself of the industry?

What legislation, what political adroitness could replace such life and brains, once driven out?

Beware of the Something for Nothing Fakir

You can put this down as an infallible rule—there is no such thing as something for nothing. If you keep that principle in mind you will be buying real food value with your dollars, which, of course, means a conservation and a saving.

When you see anything offered for sale "cheap," beware. Something is wrong somewhere. In the long run you get just about what you pay for and if you try to get something for nothing you will generally get less than you pay for.

Some thoughtless housewives believe they effect a saving by using self rising flour. In most cases they are buying an inferior food and paying far more than the article is actually worth. So the housewife who thinks she is getting her baking powder for nothing is mistaken. She is paying dearly for it and instead of getting a pure, plain flour and baking powder added, in the majority of cases is getting a poor grade of flour, a cheap grade of powder containing calcium sulphate or plaster of paris.

H. L. Eskew, Food Commissioner of the State of Tennessee, in a recent address at Atlantic City, said:

"I would not tolerate flour products like some of the 'self rising flour' sold in a large part of the South, the constituents of which are alike unknown and not to be ascertained by the consumer and whose purity in the matter of phosphate is open to serious question as a deceptive agency."

Buy a pure, plain flour and a standard baking powder and you will know just what you are buying and you will be getting more for your money.
